Description :

PDF-4437d | David Cecelski chronicles one of the most sustained and successful protests of the civil rights movement--the 1968-69 school boycott in Hyde County, North Carolina. For an entire year, the county's black citizens refused to send their children to school in protest of a desegregation plan that required closing two historically black schools in their remote coastal community. Parents and students he... Along Freedom Road: Hyde County, North Carolina, and the Fate of Black Schools in the South (Studies in Legal History)
