Description :

PDF-18d86 | Blackness is a term which has been understood differently based upon time and geography. The authors of this book explore how the term was understood by Arabs during the era surrounding the first three generations of Muslims and how such context can better inform understanding who from among them would today be considered Black Muslims in the West. This is very important in light of the effects of... Centering Black Narrative: Black Muslim Nobles Among the Early Pious Muslims
