Description :

PDF-2f264 | 'Constantine hardly deserves the title of Great which posterity has given him, either by his character or by his abilities. He was highly susceptible to flattery, and fell completely under the influence of any dominating personality who happened to be at his side ... Still less does Constantine deserve the title of saint, which the Eastern Church has bestowed upon him. He was, it is true, accord... Constantine and the Conversion of Europe (MART: The Medieval Academy Reprints for Teaching)
