Description :

PDF-3c56c | Former slaves themselves?an important but long-neglected source of information about the institution of slavery in the United States. Who could better describe what slavery was like than the people who experienced it? And describe it they did, in thousands of remarkable interviews sponsored by the Federal Writers' Project during the 1930s. More than 170 interviews were conducted in North Carol... My Folks Don't Want Me To Talk About Slavery: Personal Accounts of Slavery in North Carolina
