Description :

PDF-65637 | This is the epic story of how African-Americans, in the six decades following slavery, transformed themselves into a political people--an embryonic black nation. As Steven Hahn demonstrates, rural African-Americans were central political actors in the great events of disunion, emancipation, and nation-building. At the same time, Hahn asks us to think in more expansive ways about the nature and bou... A Nation Under Our Feet: Black Political Struggles in the Rural South from Slavery to the Great Migration
