Description :

PDF-47c04 | Octavius Valentine Catto was an orator who shared stages with Frederick Douglass, a second baseman on Philadelphia's best black baseball team, a teacher at the city's finest black school and an activist who fought in the state capital and on the streets for equal rights. With his racially-charged murder, the nation lost a civil rights pioneer one who risked his life a century before Selma and Birmingham... Tasting Freedom: Octavius Catto and the Battle for Equality in Civil War America
